Your Supporting Evidence Checklist

The O-1A is a 3-year employment-based visa that requires the applicant to show a clear employer and employee relationship with the sponsoring entity.

To prepare a successful application, we would also look to include the following documentation and information regarding the U.S. employer sponsor:

- Employer documentation includes: Articles of Incorporation, FEIN/EIN Letter, Bank statement of proof of funding to show ability to pay, and a company overview. This information is to ensure USCIS sees the employer as a valid operating entity with the ability to pay the visa recipient
- Signatory other than the applicant to sign off on your immigration forms and employment verification letter.

Award

Received venture funding for your company:

- SAFEs or other venture funding documents
- Support letter from the awarding VC fund
